COMMUNITY OUTREACH AND PREVENTION SUPPORT RESOURCES

FROM THE U.S. DRUG ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION

Fentanyl Free America is DEA's unwavering commitment to protect the United States from synthetic opioids by disrupting the fentanyl supply chain, reducing its availability, and saving American lives. Website: dea.gov/fentanylfree DEA joined forces with Discovery Education to provide no-cost online tools at www.operationprevention.com. This standards-aligned curriculum offers English and Spanish-language resources for students in grades 3–12.

www.campusdrugprevention.gov serves professionals working to prevent drug use and misuse among college students and is a useful tool for college students, parents, and others involved in campus communities.

www.getsmartaboutdrugs.com provides information for parents, other caregivers, and educators to help prevent identify drug use by young people.

DEA works with American Indian and Alaska Native leaders, law enforcement agencies, and educational institutions on tribal lands to address drug threats, prescription medication safety, and opioid use. Learn more at getsmartaboutdrugs.com/tribal www.justthinktwice.com provides information and insights for teens about various drugs, consequences of drug use, and addiction.

Red Ribbon Week is celebrated annually on October 23-31 and highlights the importance of living a drug-free life. dea.gov/redribbon

The Faces of Fentanyl Memorial Exhibit presents images of thousands of Americans who have lost their lives to a fentanyl poisoning or overdose. Learn more, or submit a photo, at www.dea.gov/facesoffentanyl

Together for Families at dea.gov/togetherforfamilies contains resources from the DEA's government and non-profit partners that serve families. Add your organization by emailing togetherforfamilies@dea.gov

COMMUNITY OUTREACH AND PREVENTION SUPPORT RESOURCES

FROM THE U.S. DRUG ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION

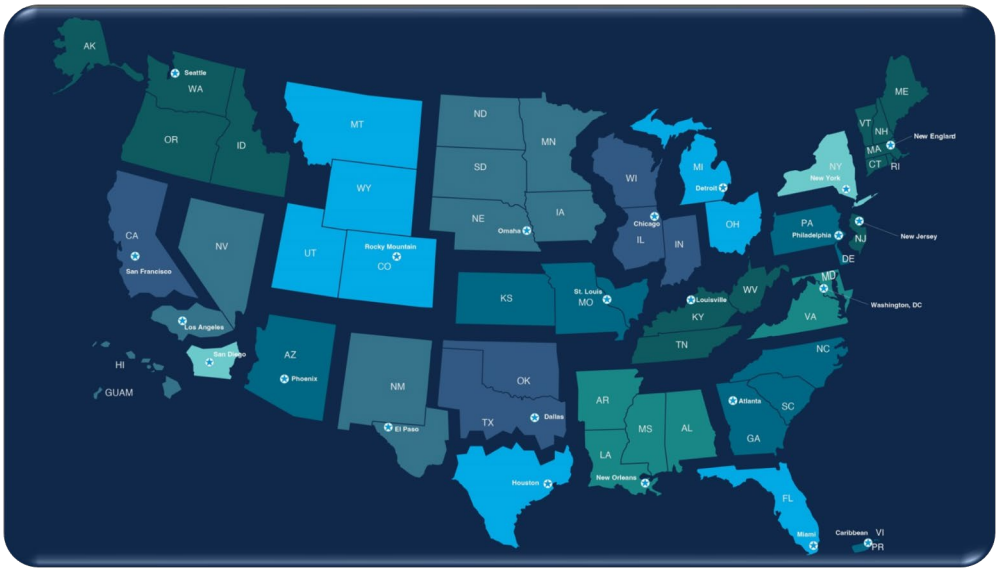

Hidden on Your Kids Phone gives parents and caregivers information and skills to protect their family online. The videos can be watched at home, or in a public setting such as a PTA meeting. www.getsmartaboutdrugs.com/hidden

Tools to Talk with Your Young Person about Anything (including substance use) is a video presentation to help parents and caregivers communicate effectively with their young person. www.getsmartaboutdrugs.com/toolstotalk

DEA offers dozens of prevention-related publications, including fact cards, brochures, and guidebooks for not only the general public, but also specific audiences. Most are also available in Spanish. Visit www.getsmartaboutdrugs.com/resources or use the QR code to the left.

This map shows DEA's 25 Field Divisions. Each divisions is served by a Community Outreach Specialist (COS) who works with Individuals; groups such as community coalitions, civic leaders, state and local drug use prevention organizations; and the general public. Find your COS at ...

getsmartaboutdrugs.com/cos

DEA Community Outreach & Prevention Support
Call us: 202.307.7936
Email us: community.outreach@dea.gov
Online: www.dea.gov/education-prevention

11-5-2026