

DRUG ENFORCEMENT ADMINISTRATION (DEA) RED RIBBON PATCH PROGRAM

What is the DEA Red Ribbon Patch Program?

The DEA Red Ribbon Patch Program is designed to provide Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts the opportunity to earn a patch from the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) by performing anti-drug activities in commemoration of Red Ribbon Week. This initiative seeks to empower young people to create, embrace, and strengthen their drug free beliefs.

DEA will award a Red Ribbon Patch and Certificate of Participation to the first 15,000 qualifying Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts!

The Red Ribbon Patch Program starts on July 10, 2017 and ends on November 13, 2017

Who can participate in the program?

All Boy and Girl Scouts are eligible to participate.

How to Earn the Red Ribbon Patch:

1. Each Scouting unit or troop must coordinate a Red Ribbon Week activity in the community or school.
2. Each Scout must attend a drug prevention education session.
3. Each Scout must take the DEA Drug Free Pledge.
4. The Scout leader must submit the online 'Activity Report' to www.Get SmartAbout Drugs.com upon completion of program requirements for more information about the program, please visit www.GetSmartAboutDrugs.com.
